Lighting of the Advent Candle

Celebrant Today we light the first, second and third candles of the Advent Wreath.

The first candle stands for HOPE, the second candle symbolizes PEACE, the candle we light today signifies JOY.

Celebrant

St. John writes, as the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be complete. (John 15: 9-11)

Solo of verse of "O Come O Come Emmanuel" as the first, second and third candles are lit.

Opening Acclamation

Celebrant The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will fulfill my promise to my people.

People Justice and righteousness will fill the land and all will live in peace and safety.

Kyrie S-96 Lord Have Mercy

Franz Schubert

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Stir up your power, O Lord, and with great might come among us; and, because we are sorely hindered by our sins, let your bountiful grace and mercy speedily help and deliver us; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

The Word of the Lord

The First Reading: Zephaniah 3:14-20

Sing aloud, O daughter Zion; shout, O Israel!

Rejoice and exult with all your heart,
O daughter Jerusalem!

The LORD has taken away the judgments against you,
he has turned away your enemies.

The king of Israel, the LORD, is in your midst;
you shall fear disaster no more.

On that day it shall be said to Jerusalem:

Do not fear, O Zion;
do not let your hands grow weak.

The LORD, your God, is in your midst,
a warrior who gives victory;

he will rejoice over you with gladness,
he will renew you in his love;

he will exult over you with loud singing as on a day of festival.

I will remove disaster from you,
so that you will not bear reproach for it.

I will deal with all your oppressors at that time.

And I will save the lame
and gather the outcast, and I will change their shame into praise and renown in all the earth.
At that time I will bring you home,
at the time when I gather you;
for I will make you renowned and praised among all the peoples of the earth, when I restore your fortunes before your eyes, says the LORD.

Canticle 9 Hymn 679 Surely It Is God Who Saves Me

Isaiah 12:2-6

Surely, it is God who saves me;
I will trust in him and not be afraid.
For the Lord is my stronghold and my sure defense,
and he will be my Savior.
Therefore you shall draw water with rejoicing from the springs of salvation.
And on that day you shall say,
Give thanks to the Lord and call upon his Name;
Make his deeds known among the peoples;
see that they remember that his Name is exalted.
Sing the praises of the Lord, for he has done great things,
and this is known in all the world.
Cry aloud, inhabitants of Zion, ring out your joy, for the great one in the midst of you is the Holy One of Israel.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

The Second Reading: Philippians 4:4-7

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Hymn 68 Rejoice! Rejoice, Believers Llangloffan

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ According to Luke.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The Holy Gospel: Luke 3:7-18

John said to the crowds that came out to be baptized by him, "You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? Bear fruits worthy of repentance. Do not begin to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our ancestor'; for I tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children to Abraham. Even now the ax is lying at the root of the trees; every tree therefore that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire."

And the crowds asked him, "What then should we do?" In reply he said to them, "Whoever has two coats must share with anyone who has none; and whoever has food must do likewise." Even tax collectors came to be baptized, and they asked him, "Teacher, what should we do?" He said to them, "Collect no more than the amount prescribed for you." Soldiers also asked him, "And we, what should we do?" He said to them, "Do not extort money from anyone by threats or false accusation, and be satisfied with your wages."

As the people were filled with expectation, and all were questioning in their hearts concerning John, whether he might be the Messiah, John answered all of them by saying, "I baptize you with water; but one who is more powerful than I is coming; I am not worthy to untie the thong of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing fork is in his hand, to clear his threshing floor and to gather the wheat into his granary; but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire." So, with many other exhortations, he proclaimed the good news to the people.

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

*We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.*

*For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.*

*On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.*

*We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.*

Jesus Christ the Apple Tree

Elizabeth Poston

*For happiness I long have sought, and pleasure dearly I have bought:
I missed of all, but now I see 'tis found in Christ the apple tree.*

Prayers of the People

Worship Leader

Loving Father, light of our minds and souls, we thank you for sending Jesus to live among us to make the way of the cross the way of life and we praise you for sending the Holy Spirit to strengthen us, comfort us, and guide us into all truth. Holy Trinity, One God, let our praises come to you. For your love and goodness, we give thanks to you, O God.

We pray for your One Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church, that you would guard its unity and preserve it in peace, especially in areas where your Church suffers violence because they bear the name of Christ. We pray for Michael, our Presiding Bishop and DeDe, our Bishop, for Glenn our Priest and for all lay ministers of Trinity Parish, that you would inspire and lead us all, For your love and goodness,
we give thanks to you, O God.

For our people of our world and of our nation, that you would instill in all people the desire for peace and mutual respect, that you would enlighten us to appreciate and care for this earth, our island home. For your love and goodness,
we give thanks to you, O God

We pray for those who struggle in poverty, for those who endure chronic pain, for those who suffer from addictions in its many forms and we pray for those who live in fear of abuse. We pray for those who are ill, especially those who suffer from Covid 19 and those who care for them, and those who are close to our hearts: Linda Crampton; Sai Loksupcharoen; Katherine Bigelow; Liz Myers; Emma Bensen; Jaime; Katelyn; Michael Abbott Copeland; Barbara; John & Marcy Keeler; Rudy; Sharon; Nancy Campbell; Andrew & Mary; Ruth Jacobs; Colleen; Wafa; Rebecca & Chris Seager; Michael Lawler; Ida Fernandes; Terry Burke, Thomas Muscatello, Monty; Ivan; Liz; Michelle; Kristen Richards; Sandra Michael, Bernice Georges, and Chris . . . are there others? Please share your prayers silently or aloud we pray they may know your healing power and peace. For your love and goodness, we give thanks to you, O God.

We thank you for the lives of those who are celebrating birthdays: Drieux Koeppel, James Rexer, Jo Anne Maniago, Stephen Shea, Jim Albert . . . are there others? Please share your prayers silently or aloud. For your love and goodness,
we give thanks to you, O God.

For the communion of saints who have gone before us, and we remember those close to our hearts who have died including Peggy Robinson who recently died and Dr. Elton R. Dickson; Johanna Hilgers Dickson; Philip H. Hester . . . are there others? Please share your prayers silently or aloud. Let us hear their voice of encouragement as we run the race of faith that is set before us. For your love and goodness,
we give thanks to you, O God.

The Celebrant adds a concluding collect

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen

Celebrant

Have mercy upon us, most merciful Father; in your compassion forgive us our sins, known and unknown, things done and left undone; and so uphold us by your Spirit that we may live and serve you in newness of life, to the honor and glory of your name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Offertory and Prayers

The Offertory Sentence

Offertory Anthem

Springs in the Desert

Arthur Jennings

*Say to them that are of a fearful heart,
Be strong, fear not: behold, your God will come and save you.
The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad;
and the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose.*

*For in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams flow in the desert.
And the parched ground shall become a pool,
and the thirsty land springs of water.*

*A highway shall be there, and it shall be called The way of holiness;
the redeemed shall walk there:
And the ransomed of the Lord shall return with songs and everlasting joy and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.*

Presentation Hymn 56, stanza 6

Veni Emmanuel

O come, thou Dayspring from on high, and cheer us by the drawing nigh;
Disperse the gloomy clouds of night, and death's dark shadows put to flight.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel.

A Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

Because you sent your beloved Son to redeem us from sin and death, and to make us heirs in him of everlasting life; that when he shall come again in power and great triumph to judge the world, we may without shame or fear rejoice to behold his appearing.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus S-114

Healey Willan

Then the Celebrant continues

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you:

This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

Celebrant and People

We remember his death,

We proclaim his resurrection,

We await his coming in glory;

The Celebrant continues

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

Let us pray as our Savior Christ has taught us,
*Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.*

The Breaking of the Bread

Agnus Dei S-158

Healey Willan

*O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world,
have mercy upon us.
O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world,
have mercy upon us.
O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world,
grant us thy peace.*

Ministration of Communion

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

All are welcome to receive Communion.

In order to provide the safest environment for our members, we are offering both bread and wine at the crossing rather than at the Altar rail. In this way we don't get people bunched up waiting for a place at the altar rail, and we don't have to kneel elbow to elbow with one another. Please see the article in the announcements for further information on this.

How you receive communion is completely up to you, depending on your comfort level. You may receive communion in any way you choose, it is your decision. If you choose to receive the bread only that is considered a full communion, the Episcopal Church does not insist that you receive the wine. If you choose to receive the wine, you may either sip from the large chalice that is offered or intinct the corner of your wafer in the small cup. You may even hand your wafer to the Eucharistic Minister and they will intinct the bread for you and either hand it back to you or place it on your tongue. You may also choose to receive a spiritual communion by saying a prayer to ask Jesus to live in your heart and mind as the Lord of your life.

Hymn 75 There's a Voice in the Wilderness Crying

Ascension

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Celebrant and People

*God of abundance, you have fed us with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.*

The Blessing

O God, you have created all things and in love you have fashioned the human family in a variety of races, languages, and cultures. Do not let our differences separate us and save us from prejudice, arrogance and fear. Teach us how to live together as members of one family, sharing one home, and the children of one God. And the blessing of God, who created us, who redeemed us, and who gives us life, be with us all this day and always. Amen
