Hymn 665 All My Hope on God Is Founded

Michael

Opening Acclamation

Celebrant Blessed be God, Father Son and Holy Spirit

People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and forever. Amen

Celebrant Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

8:30 am – Kyrie Lord, have mercy. Christ have mercy, Lord have mercy.

Gloria S-202

Healey Willan

Glory be to God on high,

and on earth peace, good will towards men.

We praise thee, we bless thee, we worship thee, we glorify thee, we give thanks to thee for thy great glory,

O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father Almighty.

O Lord, the only begotten Son, Jesus Christ;

O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.

Thou that takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayer.

Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father, have mercy upon us.

For thou only art holy; thou only art the Lord;

Thou only O Christ, with the Holy Ghost,

art most high in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you,

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray

Blessed Lord, who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: Grant us so to hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Word of the Lord

The First Reading: Daniel 12:1-3

The Lord spoke to Daniel in a vision and said,

“At that time Michael, the great prince, the protector of your people, shall arise.

There shall be a time of anguish, such as has never occurred since nations first came into existence.

But at that time your people shall be delivered, everyone who is found written in the book. Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

Those who are wise shall shine like the brightness of the sky, and those who lead many to righteousness, like the stars forever and ever.”

Lector The Word of the Lord

People Thanks be to God

Psalm 16 8:30 a.m. Read the Psalm 10 a.m. refrains after verses 4, 8, 11

Daniel Pinkham

1 Protect me, O God, for I take refuge in you;
I have said to the LORD, "You are my Lord, my good above all other."

- 2 All my delight is upon the godly that are in the land, upon those who are noble among the people.
- 3 But those who run after other gods shall have their troubles multiplied.
- 4 Their libations of blood I will not offer, nor take the names of their gods upon my lips. Refrain
- 5 O LORD, you are my portion and my cup;
it is you who uphold my lot.
- 6 My boundaries enclose a pleasant land;
indeed, I have a goodly heritage.
- 7 I will bless the LORD who gives me counsel;
my heart teaches me, night after night.
- 8 I have set the LORD always before me;
because he is at my right hand I shall not fall. Refrain
- 9 My heart, therefore, is glad, and my spirit rejoices;
my body also shall rest in hope.
- 10 For you will not abandon me to the grave,
nor let your holy one see the Pit.
- 11 You will show me the path of life;
in your presence there is fullness of joy,
and in your right hand are pleasures for evermore. Refrain

The Second Reading: Hebrews 10:11-25

Every priest stands day after day at his service, offering again and again the same sacrifices that can never take away sins. But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, “he sat down at the right hand of God,” and since then has been waiting “until his enemies would be made a footstool for his feet.” For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are sanctified. And the Holy Spirit also testifies to us, for after saying,

“This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, says the Lord:
I will put my laws in their hearts, and I will write them on their minds,”
he also adds,

“I will remember their sins and their lawless deeds no more.”

Where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer any offering for sin.

Therefore, my friends, since we have confidence to enter the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain (that is, through his flesh), and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us approach with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who has promised is faithful. And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

Lector The Word of the Lord People Thanks be to God.

Hymn 628 Help Us, O Lord, to Learn St. Ethelwald

The Gospel

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Mark 13:1-8

As Jesus came out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, “Look, Teacher, what large stones and what large buildings!” Then Jesus asked him, “Do you see these great buildings? Not one stone will be left here upon another; all will be thrown down.”

When he was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately, “Tell us, when will this be, and what will be the sign that all these things are about to be accomplished?” Then Jesus began to say to them, “Beware that no one leads you astray. Many will come in my name and say, ‘I am he!’ and they will lead many astray. When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be alarmed; this must take place, but the end is still to come. For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be earthquakes in various places; there will be famines. This is but the beginning of the birthpangs.”

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord People Praise to you, Lord Christ

Sermon

The Rev. Glenn Mahaffey

8:30 a.m. service proceeds to the Prayers of the People

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:

by the power of the Holy Spirit

he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;

he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;

he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Loving God, you are the creator of all. We thank you for sending Jesus to live among us and bring us into communion with you and we praise you for sending the Holy Spirit to strengthen us, comfort us, and guide us into all truth. Holy Trinity, One God, let our praises come to you. For your love and goodness, we give thanks to you, O God.

We pray for your One Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church, that you would guard its unity and preserve it in peace, especially in areas where your Church suffers violence because they bear the name of Christ. We pray for Michael, our Presiding Bishop and DeDe, our Bishop, for Glenn our Priest and for all lay ministers of Trinity Parish, that you would inspire and lead us all on the path into Your Kingdom. For your love and goodness,

we give thanks to you, O God.

For our people of our world and of our nation, that you would instill in all people the desire for peace and mutual respect, that you would enlighten us to appreciate and care for this earth, our island home. For your love and goodness,

we give thanks to you, O God

We pray for those who struggle in poverty, for those who endure chronic pain, and for those who suffer from addictions in its many forms, we pray for those who live in fear of abuse, We pray for those who are ill, for those who suffer from Covid and for those who are close to our hearts, especially Linda Crampton; Sai Loksupcharoen; Katherine Bigelow; Liz Myers; Emma Bensen; Jaime; Katelyn; Michael Abbott Copeland; Barbara; John & Marcy Keeler; Rudy; Sharon; Nancy Campbell; Andrew & Mary; Ruth Jacobs; Colleen; Wafa; Rebecca & Chris Seager; Michael Lawler; Ida Fernandes; Terry Burke, Thomas Muscatello, Monty; Ivan; Liz; Michelle; Kristen Richards and Chris . . . are there others? Please share your prayers silently or aloud we pray they may know your healing power and peace. For your love and goodness,

we give thanks to you, O God.

We thank you for the lives of those who are celebrating birthdays: Jeffrey Weyant; Philip Evans . . . are there others? Please share your prayers silently or aloud. For your love and goodness,

we give thanks to you, O God.

For the communion of saints who have gone before us, especially Beverly Brown who recently died and Edward R. Mosher; Alfred C. & Georgiana M. Mosher; Robert C. Mosher and Robert F. Wolcott, Marilyn T. Wolcott, James R. Wolcott . . . are there others? Please share your prayers silently or aloud. Let us hear their voice of encouragement as we run the race of faith that is set before us.

For your love and goodness,

we give thanks to you, O God.

Celebrant adds a concluding collect.

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

God of all mercy, we confess that we have sinned against you, opposing your will in our lives. We have denied your goodness in each other, in ourselves, and in the world you have created. We repent of the selfishness that enslaves us, the self-centered acts we have done, and those done on our behalf. Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen

Absolution

May the Almighty and merciful Lord grant you absolution and remission of all your sins, true repentance, amendment of life and the grace and consolation of God's Holy Spirit. Amen

The Peace

The Holy Communion

Offertory Sentence

For yours O Lord is the greatness, the power, the glory, the victory and majesty. For everything in the heavens and earth are yours. Yours, O Lord, is the kingdom, and you are exalted as head over all. 1 Chronicles 29:11

Anthem

Cause Us, O Lord

Ron Nelson

Cause us, O Lord our God, to lie down each night in peace, and to awaken to renewed life and strength.

Lord, help us to order our lives by thy council, lead us in the paths of righteousness.

Lord, be thou a shield about us, protect us, save our world from sorrow, from hate and from war.

Curb thou within us the will to do evil; shelter us beneath the shadow of thy wings.

Presentation Hymn 307, stanza 1

Bryn Calfaria

Lord, enthroned in heavenly splendor, first begotten from the dead.

Thou alone, our strong defender, liftest up thy people's head.

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Jesus, true and living bread! Jesus, true and living bread!

A Great Thanksgiving

(Eucharistic Prayer A, BCP p. 361)

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

For you are the source of light and life; you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus S-128

William Mathias

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho-san-na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high-est.

(The People kneel or stand, as able.)

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son.
For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

Celebrant and People

We remember his death, We proclaim his resurrection, We await his coming in glory;

The Celebrant continues

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant.

Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

8:30 a.m.

Celebrant: Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us

People: Therefore let us keep the feast.

Ministration of Communion

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

All are welcome to receive Communion.

In order to provide the safest environment for our members, we are offering both bread and wine at the crossing rather than at the Altar rail. In this way we don't get people bunched up waiting for a place at the altar rail, and we don't have to kneel elbow to elbow with one another. Please see the article in the announcements for further information on this.

How you receive communion is completely up to you, depending on your comfort level. You may receive communion in any way you choose, it is your decision. If you choose to receive the bread only that is considered a full communion, the Episcopal Church does not insist that you receive the wine. If you choose to receive the wine, you may either sip from the large chalice that is offered or intinct the corner of your wafer in the small cup. You may even hand your wafer to the Eucharistic Minister and they will intinct the bread for you and either hand it back to you or place it on your tongue. You may also choose to receive a spiritual communion by saying a prayer to ask Jesus to live in your heart and mind as the Lord of your life.

Hymn 571 All Who Love and Serve Your City

Charlestown

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Celebrant and People

*God of abundance, you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.*

Blessing

The peace of God, which passes all human understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of Jesus Christ his Son, our Lord, and the blessing of God almighty, Father, Son and Holy Spirit be among you and remain with you this day and always. Amen

Hymn 686 Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing

Nettleton

Dismissal

Celebrant: Alleluia! Alleluia! Let us go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Feeding the Hungry in Binghamton

- November 14th Trinity's Sunday Canteen Ministry
COVID restrictions threw a wrench into a long-standing and successful hot lunch program, but we're still feeding our hungry neighbors.
Bill Palmer will lead an informal chat about the history, its present status, and future plans for our Sunday Canteen Ministry.

November 21st To prepare us for Advent and the Christmas season, Louise Donohue will read a short story she published last year in a collection titled The Kissing Ball. GL Robinson is her pen (maiden) name. In this Christmas-themed story, a young woman turns up at a St. Nicholas' Party believing herself to be betrothed to the son of the house, an arrangement apparently made years ago between his father and hers, his best friend from their Oxford days. Unfortunately, the son knows nothing about it and is actually in love with someone else.

This lighthearted story plays itself out against the background of the London Christmas season, with chestnuts roasting in the streets, the Messiah in the concert halls and Yule logs burning in drawing room fireplaces.

Oh, and yes – the kissing ball – the beribboned clump of mistletoe hanging in the doorway at that St. Nicholas party, making every unwed maiden's heart beat faster.

The son of the house may not want to take advantage of it, but someone else does. If you want to know who, you'll have to come to the reading!
