The Word of the Lord

The First Reading: Amos 5: 6-7,10-15, 23-24

Seek the LORD and live, or he will break out against the house of Joseph like fire,

and it will devour Bethel, with no one to quench it.

⁷ Ah, you that turn justice to wormwood,
and bring righteousness to the ground!

¹⁰ You hate the one who reproves in the gate,
and you abhor the one who speaks the truth.

¹¹ Therefore because you trample on the poor and take from them levies of grain,
you have built houses of hewn stone,
but you shall not live in them;
you have planted pleasant vineyards,
but you shall not drink their wine.

¹² For I know how many are your transgressions, and how great are your sins—
you who afflict the righteous, who take a bribe,
and push aside the needy in the gate.

¹³ Therefore the prudent will keep silent in such a time;
for it is an evil time.

¹⁴ Seek good and not evil,
that you may live;

and so the LORD, the God of hosts, will be with you,
just as you have said.

¹⁵ Hate evil and love good,
and establish justice in the gate;
it may be that the LORD, the God of hosts,
will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph.
²³ Take away from me the noise of your songs;
I will not listen to the melody of your harps.
²⁴ But let justice roll down like waters,
and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream.

The Song of Mary Magnificat Luke 1:46-55

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord, my spirit rejoices in God my Savior;
for he has looked with favor on his lowly servant.
From this day all generations will call me blessed:
the Almighty has done great things for me,
and holy is his Name.
He has mercy on those who fear him
in every generation.
He has shown the strength of his arm,
he has scattered the proud in their conceit.
He has cast down the mighty from their thrones,
and has lifted up the lowly.
He has filled the hungry with good things,
and the rich he has sent away empty.
He has come to the help of his servant Israel,
for he has remembered his promise of mercy,
The promise he made to our fathers,
to Abraham and his children for ever.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

The Second Reading: Galatians 3: 26-28

For in Christ Jesus you are all children of God through faith. As many of you as were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. There is no longer Jew or Greek, there is no longer slave or free, there is no longer male and female; for all of you are one in Christ Jesus.

The Gospel

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The Holy Gospel: Luke 6:27–36

Jesus said, “I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you.

“If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. If you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same. If you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to receive as much again. But love your enemies, do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return. Your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High; for he is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked. Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord People Praise to you, Lord Christ

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

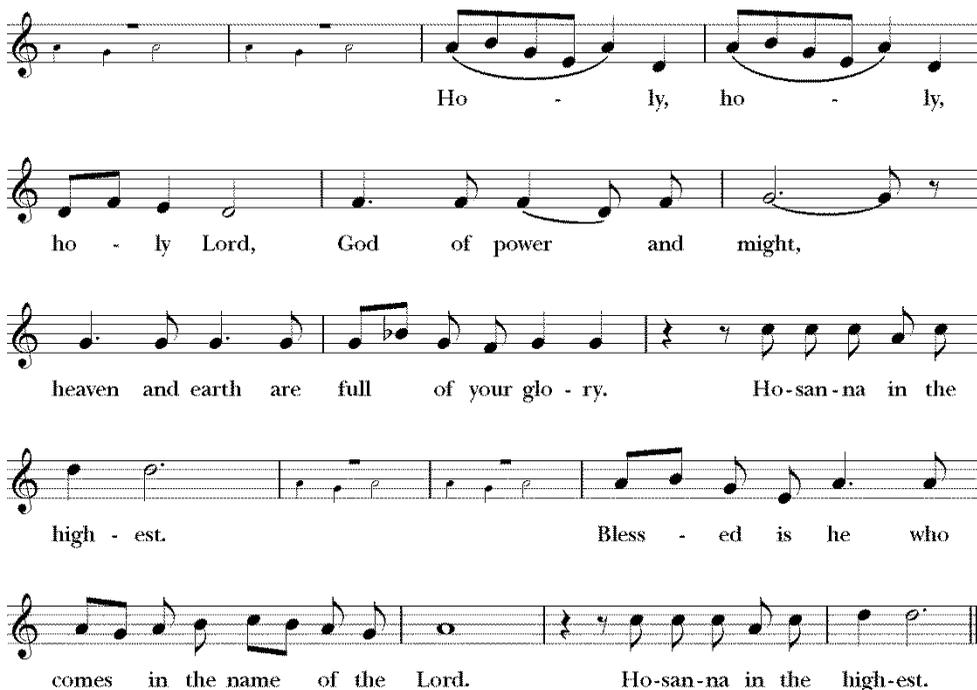

Because in Jesus Christ our Lord you have received us as your sons and daughters, made us citizens of your kingdom, and given us the Holy Spirit to guide us into all truth.

Therefore, we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus S-128

William Mathias

(The People kneel or stand, as able.)

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho-san-na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high-est.

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

Celebrant and People

We remember his death, We proclaim his resurrection, We await his coming in glory;

The Celebrant continues

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant.

Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven,

hallowed be thy Name,

thy kingdom come, thy will be done,

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,

for ever and ever. Amen.

Ministration of Communion

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

All are welcome to receive Communion.

Due to the high number of covid cases in our community, we will only be distributing bread for Communion. The church has always believed that if you receive either the bread or the wine, you have received a full communion. We ask that you remain in your seat for Communion and we will bring the sacrament to you.

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Celebrant and People

*God of abundance, you have fed us with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one
with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit,
that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.*

Blessing

The peace of God, which passes all human understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of Jesus Christ his Son, our Lord, and the blessing of God almighty, Father, Son and Holy Spirit be among you and remain with you this day and always. Amen

ANNUAL MEETING CANDIDATES FOR WARDEN and VESTRY

Judy Peckham - Warden, 1st term 2022 to 2024

In 2019 Judy retired from a career largely in the nonprofit world - most recently as Executive Director of the Conrad and Virginia Klee Foundation. A graduate of the College of Wooster and the Harvard Graduate School of Education, Judy had been a Presbyterian most of her life until joining Trinity officially in 2015 after many years of attending. She and husband Gene have 3 children and 5 grandchildren. "I love the Trinity family and look forward to continuing my service."

Wilma Betcher - Vestry, 2nd term, 2022 to 2025

Wilma and her husband Carl live in Port Dickinson. Wilma has been an enrichment teacher, hand bell and hand chime director and player, librarian (MLS), and organist. Wilma and Carl have been married 43 years. They have three children: William, Laura and Patricia. This will be Wilma's first full term as a Vestry member. She tells us: "I'm learning so much about the workings of Trinity. There are so many connections to being a member of this precious faith group. Find a way to contribute and grow!"

Karen Crisafulli - Vestry, 2nd term, 2022 to 2025

Karen Crisafulli will be happy to serve a second term as a member of the Trinity Vestry. Her religious affiliation began as a Lutheran in a small farming community in Southern Illinois, but eventually she found a welcoming spiritual home at Trinity Memorial. Serving on the Vestry and on the Commission for Mission and Ministry for the past two years has been a way to know the leaders of Trinity and the work and dedication that goes on behind the scenes. Karen looks forward to the opportunity to continue to serve as a member of the Vestry.

Peter Koeppel - Vestry, 2nd term, 2022 to 2025

Peter describes himself as Christian by baptism, Protestant by confirmation, and Episcopalian by choice. He has been a member of Trinity Memorial since 2004. Peter served on Trinity's Vestry from 2008 through 2011 and as Warden from 2012 through 2016. Peter sings with Trinity's Choir, serves on the Technology Team, and chairs the Stewardship Team. A native of Germany, Peter earned an MBA and PhD from Union College in Schenectady. He retired from IBM at the beginning of 2016, just shy of 33 years of service. Peter and his wife Drieux lived for 30 years in Vestal, and just downsized into an apartment in Binghamton. They have - including their son-in-law - three adult sons. (Next week: meet the 1st Term Vestry Candidates or see the January Trinity Times for photos and the full story.)
