The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, whose blessed Son was led by the Spirit to be tempted by Satan: Come quickly to help us who are assaulted by many temptations; and, as you know the weaknesses of each of us, let each one find you mighty to save; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Lessons

The First Reading: Deuteronomy 26:1-11

When you have come into the land that the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance to possess, and you possess it, and settle in it, you shall take some of the first of all the fruit of the ground, which you harvest from the land that the LORD your God is giving you, and you shall put it in a basket and go to the place that the LORD your God will choose as a dwelling for his name. You shall go to the priest who is in office at that time, and say to him, "Today I declare to the LORD your God that I have come into the land that the LORD swore to our ancestors to give us." When the priest takes the basket from your hand and sets it down before the altar of the LORD your God, you shall make this response before the LORD your God:

“A wandering Aramean was my ancestor; he went down into Egypt and lived there as an alien, few in number, and there he became a great nation, mighty and populous. When the Egyptians treated us harshly and afflicted us, by imposing hard labor on us, we cried to the LORD, the God of our ancestors; the LORD heard our voice and saw our affliction, our toil, and our oppression. The LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, with a terrifying display of power, and with signs and wonders; and he brought us into this place and gave us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey. So now I bring the first of the fruit of the ground that you, O LORD, have given me.”

You shall set it down before the LORD your God and bow down before the LORD your God. Then you, together with the Levites and the aliens who reside among you, shall celebrate with all the bounty that the LORD your God has given to you and to your house.

Celebrant The Word of the Lord. People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 91:1-2, 9-16 8:30 a.m. People read the Psalm.
10 a.m. People sing the refrain after verses 2, 10, 12, 14, 16.

God shall give the an-gels charge ov-er you, to keep you in all your ways.

1 He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High, abides under the shadow of the Almighty.

2 He shall say to the LORD,
“You are my refuge and my stronghold,
my God in whom I put my trust.” REFRAIN

9 Because you have made the LORD your refuge, and the Most High your habitation,

10 There shall no evil happen to you, neither shall any plague come near your dwelling. REFRAIN

God shall give the an-gels charge ov-er you, to keep you in all your ways.

- 11 For he shall give his angels charge over you, to keep you in all your ways.
- 12 They shall bear you in their hands,
lest you dash your foot against a stone. REFRAIN
- 13 You shall tread upon the lion and adder;
you shall trample the young lion and the serpent under your feet.
- 14 Because he is bound to me in love,
therefore will I deliver him;
I will protect him, because he knows my Name. REFRAIN
- 15 He shall call upon me, and I will answer him;
I am with him in trouble;
I will rescue him and bring him to honor.
- 16 With long life will I satisfy him,
and show him my salvation. REFRAIN

The Second Reading: Romans 10:8b-13

“The word is near you,
on your lips and in your heart”

(that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved.

The scripture says, “No one who believes in him will be put to shame.” For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and is generous to all who call on him. For, “Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.”

Hymn 142 Lord, Who Throughout These Forty Days St. Flavian

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The Holy Gospel: Luke 4:1-13

The Rev. Glenn Mahaffey

After his baptism, Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness, where for forty days he was tempted by the devil. He ate nothing at all during those days, and when they were over, he was famished. The devil said to him, “If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become a loaf of bread.” Jesus answered him, “It is written, ‘One does not live by bread alone.’”

Then the devil led him up and showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world. And the devil said to him, “To you I will give their glory and all this authority; for it has been given over to me, and I give it to anyone I please. If you, then, will worship me, it will all be yours. Jesus answered him, “It is written, ‘Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him.’”

Then the devil took him to Jerusalem, and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, for it is written, ‘He will command his angels concerning you, to protect you,’ and On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.”

Jesus answered him, “It is said, ‘Do not put the Lord your God to the test.’” When the devil had finished every test, he departed from him until an opportune time.

Sermon

The Rev. Glenn Mahaffey

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

*We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.*

*For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.*

*On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.*

*We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.*

*We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.*

The Peace

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

All greet one another in the name of the Lord.

The Holy Communion

The Offertory Sentence

Anthem Lord, Let Me Know Mine End Maurice Greene
Barbara Crowle & Christina Taylor, sopranos

*Lord, let me know mine end, and the number of my days, that I may be certified how long I have to live.
Behold, thou hast made my days as it were a span long,
and mine age is even as nothing in respect of thee;
And verily every man living is altogether vanity.
For man walketh in a vain shadow, and disquieteth himself in vain;
he heapeth up riches, and cannot tell who shall gather them.
And now, Lord, what is my hope? truly my hope is even in thee.
Hear my prayer, O Lord, and with thine ears consider my calling;
hold not thy peace at my tears.
O spare me a little, that I may recover my strength, before I go hence, and be no more seen. (Psalm 39)*

Offertory Hymn 401, stanza 5 Leoni

*The whole triumphant host give thanks to God on high;
“Hail Father, Son and Holy Ghost” they ever cry;
Hail Abra’ms Lord divine! With heaven our songs we raise;
All might and majesty are thine, and endless praise.*

The Great Thanksgiving: Eucharistic Prayer C (BCP, p. 369)

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant
God of all power, Ruler of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise.
People Glory to you for ever and ever.

Celebrant

At your command all things came to be: the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns, the planets in their courses, and this fragile earth, our island home.

People By your will they were created and have their being.

Celebrant

From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with memory, reason, and skill. You made us the rulers of creation. But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.

People Have mercy, Lord, for we are sinners in your sight.

Celebrant

Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your only Son, born of a woman, to fulfill your Law, to open for us the way of freedom and peace.

People By his blood, he reconciled us. By his wounds, we are healed.

Celebrant

And therefore, we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:

Sanctus and Benedictus: S127

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth
are full of your glory,
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Celebrant

And so, Father, we who have been redeemed by him, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts.
Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Lord.

On the night he was betrayed he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.

Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”
Remembering now his work of redemption,
and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving,

Celebrant and People

We celebrate his death and resurrection, as we await the day of his coming.

Celebrant

Lord God of our Ancestors; God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this table for solace only, and not for strength; pardon only and not for renewal. Let the grace of his Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may be worthy to serve the world in his name.

Celebrant and People

Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.

Celebrant

O God, we lift before you those who have asked our prayers for strength, healing, guidance and peace: Diane; Christine; Pam; Drieux; Sai Loksupcharoen; Katherine Bigelow; Michael Abbott Copeland; John & Marcy; Rudy;

We remember before you those who have died, especially Karen Bernardo; Clarence E. & Josephine Searle Wright; M. Searle Wright. Accept these prayers and praises, Father, through Jesus Christ our Great High Priest, to whom with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory and worship from generation to generation. Amen

The Lord's Prayer

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say

*Our Father,
who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.*

The Breaking of the Bread

A period of silence is kept.

Christ Our Passover: S153

Christ our Pass - o - ver is sac - ri - ficed for us;
There - fore let us keep the feast.

The lyrics 'There - fore let us keep the feast.' are written below the notes.

This setting may be sung full by all, or by the choir, or as a versicle and response.

Ministration of Communion

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

All are welcome to receive Communion.

This is the table, not of the Church, but of the Lord. It is made ready for those who love him and for those who want to love him more. So, come, you who have much faith and you who have little, you who have been here often and you who have not been here long, you who have tried to follow and you who have failed.

Come, because it is the Lord who invites you.

It is his will that those who want him can meet him here.

Hymn 343 Shepherd of Souls, Refresh and Bless

Music Notes

Music is integral to the worship life of our parish. Our Choir is returning for passionate choral singing for special services during Lent and a jubilant service on Easter morning. Not being able to offer their voices during services for most of the last two years, has been hard - to sing is to pray for our quiristers.

The Choir recognizes what we have lost over the last two years. Thus, we urge you to join us in person:

- Palm Sunday, from Handel's Messiah
- Maundy Thursday, from Searle Wright's Communion Service
- Good Friday, the Reproaches of John Sanders
- Easter, music for brass and organ and choir

And, of course: wonderful choral music adorns our liturgy again every Sunday at 10:00 am - join us in person!

To get more music news, see the Trinity Times
