

Question of the Week #3

How does attending Trinity influence your daily, personal life and faith?

I'm so thankful for the way everyone makes me feel welcome and comfortable. Thank you, Trinity Church. I truly appreciate you all.

I work hard daily to make empathy play a bigger role in my daily decisions.

I often find myself humming the tunes from the previous Sunday, so I'm blessed twice.

Location, family, friendships, music, fellowship, and meeting new people.

A shared spiritual journey.

It serves as a weekly reset, helping me to try to keep the gospel teachings a part of the fiber of my life. Also, it brings me in contact with many very special people who inspire me by the ways they put their faith into action.

Keeps God as the center of my life.

Trinity is a constant place of welcome and hospitality for those who need community.

Sense of community; knowing that others are on the path also.

Helps "Grant desiderata".

Sundays are a refresh, and "sanctuary" is an apt name. Knowing that others are genuinely interested in how you're doing. (Cards from Rayleen always make a smile)

Helps me tamp down what's not Christian!

Trinity makes me more aware of the needs of others. I think and hope, it makes me more generous.

Spiritual connection through prayers, gospel, people in church, and music.

I get strength from food for the journey!

I have been a lifelong Christian, but I have learned more Bible-based information since I've been here. It has been a wonderful new journey in faith! Thank you!

Involvement in activities and missions. Reflecting on Father Glenn's sermons and the lessons carry a sense of community and family with me throughout the week. Sunday service is a reset for the week ahead.

It very greatly influences my faith and daily personal life.

Our worship gives me strength and peace to face the coming week.

The worship service sets me on a path of gratitude and joy for the week ahead. The fellowship of others attending warms my heart. The music and sermon inspire and restores my soul. Yes!

Reinforces what I grew up with in the Anglican church, and at home every Sunday I glean nuggets of how the service enriches my life. The music and choir are a strong part of the blessings.
